

Greetings:

The City of Tampa is currently seeking a dynamic individual to join our team as Housing & Community Development Manager. As an established professional in the Housing and Community Development industry, we wanted to provide you information about this exciting opportunity.

The Housing & Community Development Manager is a critical leadership position with responsibility and authority to carry out the progressive housing agenda established by Tampa's Mayor Jane Castor. We are looking for an individual to provide leadership, vision, and strategic direction to the division and to guide a talented team to achieve new goals and objectives for housing and program initiatives citywide. We are looking to build on the success of this department to date and bring new ideas and fresh perspective to align our growing resources with the needs of our community.

As a member of the Development & Growth Management leadership team, the Manager will help to set direction and provide the framework to achieve the department's goals. The Manager will also lead efforts to implement the Mayor's Housing Affordability Advisory report recommendations and the evaluation and adoption, as appropriate, of the 2020 ULI Advisory Report recommendations (both are available upon request).

The ideal candidate will cultivate an inclusive and engaged work environment for all staff with an emphasis on transparency and accountability, structured and continuous communication, a team-oriented approach to work assignments and responsibilities, and a commitment to a positive culture within the division. Our City is continuing to grow and under the leadership of Mayor Castor is employing innovative strategies in Transforming Tampa's Tomorrow, don't miss an opportunity to join our team and share your talents with Florida's 3rd largest City!
